

ALPENMUSIC & COUCH TOURS

THE PLACE: URBANKELLER

Traditional atmosphere with modern influences

The special atmosphere of the Urbankeller is created by the combination of traditional and modern architecture. The vaults were built in 1636 and seat 110 people. A further 4 separate rooms seat between 25 and 35 people. The Urbankeller is known for its originality and high quality gastronomy and is one of the oldest inns in Salzburg.

An event in the Urbankeller comprises of either a menu or a buffet, with the addition of self-service draught beer, "Steinbier", our speciality. We also organise entertainment in the form of pop or rock bands, folk music or cabaret, if required.

Our team is happy to advise you and to put an individual package together for you. We are willing to adjust opening times for 35 guests or more.

The chef focuses on regional dishes and drinks and most of the ingredients are produced in the region of Salzburg. The „Steinbier“ is an organic beer that is now sold in over 30 shops in Austria. It was created 2 years ago by the owners and a local brewer. In 2009 and 2011 it won 2 prizes awarded by the Austrian brewing board. In addition to the famous „Steinbier“ we have a fine selection of Austrian and international wines.

Menus for coach tours can be seen on <http://www.urbankeller.com/downloads/menuevorschlaege.pdf>, individual packages can be made easily via e-mail: office@urbankeller.com.

The owners have invested in a lot of changes since 2009, modernising the restaurant and improving the standards. In 2010 the entire bar and entrance area were renovated and the garden got a new face in the spring of 2011.

THE SHOW: ALPENMUSIC

The Sound of Music, Johann Strauß, W.A. Mozart and folk music combined with typical Austrian food – these ingredients are the ideal mixture for an entertaining afternoon or evening. Your passengers will learn how to „jodel“ (active participation is requested, the „echo-jodler“ is part of the programme) and a soprano will charm us with pieces such as „Il bacio“ by Ardit, or the „Schwipslied“ by Johann Strauß.

A single piece from the famous „magic flute“ by Mozart will be performed by professionals – all of them are students and graduates of the world-famous „Mozarteum University of Salzburg“.

The event takes place in the vaults, described above, the „heart“ of the place. A maximum number of 110 participants is possible.
